

Financial Statement of International Students

Section 1: Student's Statement of Financial Responsibilities (all three sections must be completed)

I, _____ do hereby certify that:
(Student's Name)

I will have sufficient funds in United States currency available to me for each academic year (9 months) to cover the educational and living expenses, as stipulated on the reverse side of this form or on the Current Cost Sheet for International Students, plus adequate funds for my travel to and from the U. S. In addition to having adequate funds for my own expenses, I will also have sufficient funds to cover living and travel expenses for any dependents who accompany me.

If I remain in the U.S. during the summer, I will also have sufficient funds to cover living and travel expenses for myself and any dependents who accompany me. If I attend summer school, I will have sufficient funds to cover tuition, fees, books and supplies.

These funds (minus any scholarship funds verified by an attached statement) can and will be provided during my entire period of studies by the individual noted in Section 2 (or the agency noted on an attached verification statement).

I can make arrangements to have the necessary funds transferred to the U.S. and available to me prior to registration each semester.

Texas Christian University, Master of Accounting Program

Estimated International Student Expense Sheet: Fall 2023 through Spring 2024

The I-20 Certificate of Eligibility (required to obtain a student visa) cannot be issued without proof of sufficient financial resources and sponsorship verification statements. The following instructions will assist you in preparation of the financial statement:

Section 1: Student's Statement of Financial Responsibilities

The applicant must read and complete Section 1 and sign it. If self-sponsored, the applicant should write "self" as the name of the sponsor and sign and date Section 2. A self-sponsored student must provide evidence of financial resources to cover expenses for the full length of the program.

Section 2: Sponsor's Statement of Financial Responsibilities

The sponsor must sign and date Section 2. If the student is sponsored by an agency or government, such sponsorship must be verified by an attached official statement. The original document must be on file at TCU. Note: If a student has more than one sponsor, the student and each sponsor must complete a separate form and indicate the amount of support in Section 2. Copies of this form can be made for additional sponsors. Each sponsor must present evidence of funding in the form of bank statements and letters confirming his/her employment.

Section 3: Financial Verification from Bank or Other Financial Institution

This section must include supporting documents that show evidence of the funds and evidence of sufficient salary in the form of bank statements and letter from the employer in the company's letterhead. Currency amounts must be specific and converted to their equivalency in U.S. dollars. Ambiguous amounts stating only "low or high number of figures", or self-assessing financial documents, will not be accepted.

Note: All forms and evidence must be originals and submitted with a translation in English.
