3-Year Business Honors Cohort

Through rigorous academic, co-curricular, and professional development opportunities, Neeley Fellows aims to develop students of exceptional potential and work ethic to be high performing business leaders.

Experience

Sophomore Year

- Classes with the cohort: Marketing Management, Fundamentals of Accounting, Financial Management, Entrepreneurial and Business Regulatory Environment, Business Information Systems
- Travel includes a Spring Break trip to New York City exploring various career paths, networking with Neeley Fellows alumni, experiencing company site visits, and an optional cross-cohort Fall Break trip to west coast for city and business exploration
- Weekly professional development labs working on resumes, LinkedIn, interviewing, life design, and career exploration
- Sophomore Mentorship Groups to build relationships with cohort peers in small group settings led by senior Neeley Fellow Peer Advisors

Junior Year

- Classes with the cohort: Business Analytics, Organizational Management, Global Business Perspectives (with international travel)
- Alumni coaching teams provide professional coaching, insight and guidance while building your network
- Opportunities through our student board, NFSO, to build leadership skills, enhance your experience, and further impact our community
- Weekly professional development labs continue to build your exposure and skill set covering topics such as goal setting, mentorship, design thinking, tech skills and storytelling

Senior Year

- Classes with the cohort: Strategic Management
- Weekly professional development labs focusing on skills to aid in the transition from TCU to post-graduation and preparation to enter an alumni network of 15 graduated cohorts with an established brand of excellence and business success
- Coach and give back to the Neeley Fellows community through serving as Peer Advisors, sharing insight, and supporting younger cohorts

Consultant, Protiviti

"Because of everything Neeley Fellows has poured into me and taught me, I feel more prepared than ever for each of these new experiences. This summer, I truly realized just how impactful Neeley Fellows has been to my personal and professional development."

Claire O'Connor '22

Redwoods Analyst, DaVita

"My Neeley Fellows experience has been one full of growth, opportunity and fun. I have discovered more about myself and the ways that I can use my skills to give back to those around me. This would not have been possible without all of the opportunities through NF including leadership, internships and alumni."
